EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

You'll Miss Us.

"Goodby, Jim, take keer o' yer self,"—Riley.
So you're going to leave the old town, are you?

Well, we're sorry to lose you, and we'll miss you when you are gone, but perhaps you know best—perhaps. We don't want to discourage you—not for the world—but, son, you'll find it's not all rosy.

Sometimes our young men find more and better opportunities in the city than in towns like ours—and sometimes they don't.

The foreman will not call you Jim—you will have a number. And your real boss will not know you.

If you make good, you can climb, but will you have a chance to own the business?

The city landladies are not so anxious to have your room tidy as mother always was. And you know mother is a real cook, too. And when you go to the cafeteria, feeling hungry—and you'll get hungry—and order a dinner and eat it all and still feel hungry, you are going to think of the old dinner table in the old home town, where the dishes always seemed full and somebody always ready to pass them when your plate was empty.

And on Sundays, of course, you can go to the picture shows and to the parks and every turn you make will cost you six cents or more and you will think of the bunch of fellows back here that can spend a jolly afternoon without spending a week's salary.

Opportunities are there—and obstacles. We hope you can overcome them.

Have you thought how the old folks are going to miss you? How they will lie awake at night and wonder how it is going with you? And they will wonder about you—and pray for you.

They need you more than ever, now. They're not as strong as they used to be while you are stronger. You'll realize all this when you get down there and you'll realize, too, that there's no place like home.

If you make good we will be proud of you, and if you don't, we'll welcome you back to Paris, the best little old town in the world.

How About Mother's Wages?

"The most poorly paid worker in the world," said a farmer the other day, "is the average farmer's wife. She puts in long hours and gets less for it than anybody else, man, woman or child." Come to think of it, there is something to this. For not only must the farm housekeeper put in long hours and get small pay, but she must know a lot of things—have a highly technical training, in fact.

Are mother's wages fair wages? Tell us what you think about it.

The Poor Preacher

The preacher has a hard time. If his hair is gray, he is old. If he is a young man, he hasn't had experience. If he has ten children he has too many. If he has none, he should have, and isn't setting a good example. If his wife sings in the choir, she is presuming. If she doesn't, she isn't interested in her husband's work. If he reads from notes, he is a bore. If he speaks extemporaneously, he isn't deep enough. If he calls on some very poor family, he is playing to the grand stand. If he calls at the home of the rich, he is an aristocrat.

Whatever he does, someone could have told him how to do it better. He has a fine time living off donations which never come in, and promises that never mature.

Too Busy?

"When we hear somebody complain 'I haven't time to do this or that,' we think of the days long gone by, when we did not have the conveniences that we now have.

What would the busy-body do if he had to make his own candles for light, chop his wood for the fire, shoot his powder-and-ball rifle for food?

To travel, he would go by stream or mud road. He'd have no telephone. His doctor lived forty miles away, his school was half as far, sundial was his time-piece, the birds his weather forecasters. The stream was his bathtub, the brook his mirror. And the newspaper never would reach him.

Imagine him doing all these things—this fellow who has no time! Poor pashi-bazouk!

JAMES WATSON SAYS, "I'LL NEVER FORGET WHEN FATHER'S HOGS GOT CHOLERA"

"One morning he found 20 hogs dead and several sick. He called in the Vet, who after dissecting a rat caught on the premises, decided that the rodents had conveyed germs. Since then I am never without RAT-SNAP. It's the surest, quickest rat destroyer I know." Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.50. Sold and guaranteed by The Farmers' Supply Co., Paris, Ky. (adv-nov)

Eggs that are cheap sometimes do when you put them to your ear.—Boston Transcript.

THIS MEANS YOU.

When you get up with a bad taste in your mouth, a dull, tired feeling, no relish for food and are constipated, you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only cause an agreeable movement of the bowels, but cleanse and invigorate the stomach and improve the digestion. (adv-nov)

WHEN WOMEN DEFEATED THE PRESIDENT

Ordinarily the social battles of the Administration Women—those dictators of social life in Washington—are looked upon as beneath the consideration of dignified politics, but there is at least one case in which the women defeated the President of the United States in a pitched battle, and seriously injured his national influence. Andrew Jackson was the old Indian fighter who went down to defeat before the Cabinet ladies because he dared espouse the cause of the beautiful Peggy O'Neil, one-time waitress, who had married a member of Jackson's cabinet.

The memory of the tragic death of his own wife—a death brought on by the shameful attacks of the opposition press—no doubt influenced Old Hickory in his stand, but despite his ultimatum to the members of his cabinet that their political fortunes depended upon their wives' recognition of his protegee, the women were obdurate in their refusal to accept the daughter of a tavern-keeper as their social equal and were in the end victorious.

NASTY COLDS ARE RELIEVED AT ONCE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Then Breaks Up a Cold in a Few Hours

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up a severe cold and ends all gripe misery.

The very first dose opens your clogged-up nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, contains no quinine. Insist upon Pape's! (adv)

"You must have said something dreadful to Mr. Bestseller."

"I merely suggested that he hire the fellow who got up his advertisements to write his books for him."

LIFT OFF CORNS WITH FINGERS

Few Drops of "Freezone," Then Corns Lift Off—No Pain!

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs so little at any drug store; apply a few drips upon any corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off with your fingers. Truly! No humbug! (adv)

BOURBON TOBACCO WAREHOUSE COMPANY

Having Received Positive Assurance From the Heads of the Big Companies That Their Buyers will be on Hand, Announce Their Opening Sale for

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3

TOBACCO RECEIVED ANY TIME AFTER NOVEMBER 15

COME TO THE OPENING AND SEE

OUR NEW HOUSE

IT'S A PEACH

Consider These Facts:

1. The Paris market sold 12,000,000 pounds of tobacco the past season for the highest average obtained on any market in Kentucky.
2. The Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Company sold in their two houses more than 8,000,000 pounds of tobacco for the highest average on Paris market.
3. We now have three of the best and finest lighted houses in Kentucky.
4. Our Auctioneer, Mr. Wikoff, will be back. He is in a class by himself, as those who have heard him know.
5. We have the best starter in Kentucky.
6. This company has held down the selling fees on Paris market for the past seven years in spite of the fact that every other thing beneath the sun has advanced in price and in spite of the fact that we were strongly urged to raise them.
7. This means a saving of 30 cents per hundred this year and meant a saving of $36,000 to the tobacco growers who sold over the Paris market last season.

8. We do not try to pinhook our customers, but do our best to give all the same treatment and the best information at our command at all times. Last season we advised everybody to hold tobacco until January 1st. We now want to inform you that tobacco is very, very high in North Carolina, and judging our market by that, as we have been able to do in the past, good bright tobacco will be very high in Kentucky. The apparent large per cent. of low grade tobacco in this crop has a tendency to make us apprehensive of lower prices for common tobacco, though we are glad to note a very considerable advance in low grades upon hoghead market in the past ten days.

9. It will pay you to put your tobacco over the floor. The speculator who offers to buy expects to make money and is probably better posted than you.

10. Take pains in stripping and sorting and let us sell your crop for the High Dollar.
